The Perfect Early Access Duomo & Cupola Tour with Aurora

This was the perfect way to start a day in Florence. We met our guide, Aurora, at 7am in front of the Duomo, and within minutes the official key-bearer arrived to unlock the doors just for our small group. Watching the cathedral come alive, the lights slowly revealing Vasari and Zuccari's frescoed vault, the Last Judgment fresco taking shape overhead, while the space was completely silent and empty was genuinely magical. Only one other small group came through behind us, so it truly felt like we had this masterpiece to ourselves.

Cooking fun for the whole family and a delicious meal!

We had such a great time in our pasta and gelato class. Chefs Marcelo and Federico were great instructors and we learned some great cooking tips along with learning the actual steps to make pasta, ravioli, two sauces and gelato. In our family of 5, one of us is a chef and one doesn't cook much at all and we all had an equally fun time! We enjoyed wine, water and sodas with our meal and finishing off with delicious gelato was the perfect end. We would recommend this experience to anyone who wants to learn how to make Italian food with some great people.

Do this tour!

We did a small group guided tour of the Roman Forum, Palatine Hill, and the Colosseum with Alessandro. Our family of 3 and just one other couple. The Towns of Italy office, where we met, was absolutely the nicest meeting spot of all the tours we did on our trip (and we did a lot!). AC, Water, Friendly Staff, Lounge Area, and well organized. Our guide Alessandro was AMAZING. He was incredibly knowledgeable, personable, and funny. He showed us photos and videos of interesting things as well as the sites on our tour.

Worthwhile if you visit Pompeii for the first time

Pompeii is much larger and more complex than I imagined, so having a guided tour made a real difference. Our group was small, which I appreciated, and it made everything more manageable and less chaotic. The guide was well prepared and explained things very clearly. The pace was comfortable, and I felt like I actually had time to take things in. A very worthwhile experience, especially if you're visiting Pompeii for the first time!

The Perfect Tuscan Wine Tour!

Federico was an exceptional guide who made our day unforgettable. In addition to visiting three beautiful wineries, trying Super Tuscans and Chianti Classico, he took us to two breathtaking overlooks with panoramic views of Florence and to the charming town of Impruneta, famous for its handcrafted terracotta pottery. Each vineyard offered a unique experience, and we had so much fun at every stop. The wine was outstanding, the food was delicious, and the hospitality from everyone we met was warm and welcoming.

10/10 would do it again!!

I can honestly say this was one of the highlights of our entire trip to Rome — and that is saying something! Chef Shiva made our pasta and gelato cooking class an absolute joy from start to finish. The class is completely hands-on, which I loved. You're not just watching someone cook — you're right there in the kitchen, rolling pasta, perfecting technique, and getting your hands deliciously messy. Chef Shiva has this incredible gift for teaching: relaxed, fun, and genuinely passionate about the food and history behind it.

Great guide, beautiful site!

Wow, we had an incredible tour with Annalisa yesterday. As a native of Agrigento, she is steeped in its history and has had so many personal experiences having grown up going to the Valley of the Temples as a child. I don't think we would have gotten a fraction of the information from just reading a book. Highly recommend a tour!

Excellent three-hour walking tour of Palermo's UNESCO sites

Claudio was an excellent tour guide, very engaging, humorous and knowledgeable. He provided great historical information about the sites seen and occasionally combined personal stories related to the sites. The sites were well chosen and the tour progressed at a perfect speed. The fee for the tour was reasonable, and the group size was manageable. I highly recommend the three-hour walking tour of UNESCO sites. It was a great tour.
