Our approach is innovative and unique—we interpret our culture and make it available and fun, involving the tourist in the visit. We have fine-tuned this over the 17 years of experience gained in Florentetown, as Towns of Italy, we continue this commitment to excellence, offering a continually renewed and diverse range of top-notch experiences across Italy — from Florence and Tuscany to Milan, Venice, Rome, Pompeii, and Sicily, with operations in both Palermo and Taormina.

Today, we offer regularly scheduled small-group and private experiences, as well as hands-on activities that provide travelers with genuine insights into Italian culture and lifestyle.

Our structure allows us to ensure precise planning, seamless logistics, and uncompromising quality throughout every stage of the customer journey.

Cooking Schools

FLORENCE | ROME | PALERMO | MILAN

It all began with Florentetown, which in 2008 opened the very first Cooking School in Florence with the aim of giving international travelers an authentic and immersive taste of Italian culture. Since then, our commitment to quality and authenticity has made us a reference point in culinary experiential tourism. Today, our Cooking Schools welcome visitors from all over the world who wish to discover Italian traditions while creating lasting memories.

In every location, the mission remains the same: to offer travelers a genuine hands-on culinary experience that celebrates Italy's rich history and flavors. Each class is led by Towns of Italy's local chefs, guiding participants through the ingredients and recipes of each region — a must-do experience for every food lover visiting Italy.

Florence

Largo Pietro Annigoni, 9A

Twenty years after opening our very first Cooking School in Florence, we are moving into a bigger home in the heart of Sant'Ambrogio. More than a Cooking School, the new space is a versatile culinary and hospitality hub designed for classes, events, workshops and new experiences still to come. A bigger space, a new chapter, and plenty of surprises ahead.

Rome

Via Quattro Novembre 139

Our Rome Cooking School is the largest in our network, set in the heart of the city within the prestigious Palazzo Colonna complex. More than a place to cook, it is a dynamic culinary and hospitality hub, with five fully equipped kitchens — including our Arena, an auditorium-style space — designed to host hands-on classes, private events, group experiences and special projects.

Palermo

Via Volturmo, 40

The cooking school in Palermo city center is a true culinary gem, located just a few steps away from Teatro Massimo and Mercato del Capo. The school encompasses both indoor and outdoor areas, providing a versatile backdrop for a wide range of culinary adventures. From al fresco cooking sessions to cozy gatherings indoors, every corner of this space has been thoughtfully curated to ensure an unforgettable experience.

Milan

Mercato Centrale
Via Giovanni Battista Sammartini, 1st floor

Our cooking school in downtown Milan is housed inside the well-known Mercato Centrale, a large indoor food market located near the Central Railway Station. The spacious and stylish setting, combined with expert local chefs instruction and hands-on cooking experiences, make it an ideal location for small group cooking classes and private events and celebrations as well.

Exclusive collaboration with art venues and museums

Thanks to our extensive nationwide presence, over the years we have built exclusive collaborations with some of Italy's most prestigious museum institutions. These partnerships allow us to offer truly unique opportunities, such as tours of the Vasari Corridor in Florence or early access to the Florence Cathedral and the Vatican Museums, before their official opening hours. In Milan, our guests can also enjoy guaranteed access to the Cenacolo Vinciano with scheduled guided visits, making these once-in-a-lifetime experiences seamless and unforgettable.
