We are Experience Makers

We design and create our experiences ourselves, down to the last detail. Every day since 2006, we have produced over 100 unique tourism experiences.

Our profound knowledge of Italian culture and territory inspire us to create authentic, local experiences with truly varied focuses. Efficient and professional organization within our locations throughout the country, with highly trained on-site staff, allows us to provide these experiences while maintaining the highest quality standards in the industry, thanks in part to constant monitoring of all stages of the process.

Our cooking schools, our transportation, and preferential relationships with museums and places of art and culture create the perfect ingredients for our experiences. Our approach is innovative and unique—we interpret our culture and make it available and fun, involving the tourist in the visit. We have fine-tuned this over the 17 years of experience gained in Florentetown, as Towns of Italy, we continue this commitment to excellence, offering a continually renewed and diverse range of top-notch experiences across Italy — from Florence and Tuscany to Milan, Venice, Rome, Pompeii, and Sicily, with operations in both Palermo and Taormina.

Today, we offer regularly scheduled small-group and private experiences, as well as hands-on activities that provide travelers with genuine insights into Italian culture and lifestyle.

Our structure allows us to ensure precise planning, seamless logistics, and uncompromising quality throughout every stage of the customer journey.

That's why we are Experience Makers - That's why we are the leading group in experiential tourism in Italy

100+

Our Transportation Department is the secret to our efficient logistics and a key element for the success and perfect organization of our activities. In some of them, they are the soul of the experience, like the thrill of riding a Vespa, or admiring the city and the countryside from the saddle of an electric bike. Our vehicle fleet is managed in all destinations by a team of professionals who take care of the constant maintenance, assistance and logistics of our fleet: from minivans and minibuses to our special vehicles such as Vespe Piaggio, city bikes, mountain e-bikes, Ape Calessino, electric car Fiat Topolino, Land Rover Defender vintage.

Cooking Schools

FLORENCE | ROME | PALERMO | MILAN

It all began with Florencetown, which in 2008 opened the very first Cooking School in Florence with the aim of giving international travelers an authentic and immersive taste of Italian culture. Since then, our commitment to quality and authenticity has made us a reference point in culinary experiential tourism. Today, our Cooking Schools welcome visitors from all over the world who wish to discover Italian traditions while creating lasting memories.

In every location, the mission remains the same: to offer travelers a genuine hands-on culinary experience that celebrates Italy's rich history and flavors. Each class is led by Towns of Italy's local chefs, guiding participants through the ingredients and recipes of each region – a must-do experience for every food lover visiting Italy.

Florence

Via Panicale, 43

In the heart of Florence: a structure with 3 different areas, the school is housed in a modern and spacious facility that combines traditional Tuscan design elements with contemporary décor and amenities. Each space has big island dining tables as the centerpiece of the kitchen, to encourage collaboration and interaction among clients and chefs.

Rome

Via Quattro Novembre 139

Our brand-new Cooking School in Rome is the largest in our network. Situated in the heart of the city, within the prestigious Palazzo Colonna complex, it boasts five fully equipped cooking classrooms, including an impressive auditorium-style kitchen – a unique setting that elevates the Italian culinary experience for groups, events, and passionate food lovers alike.

Palermo

Via Volturmo, 40

The cooking school in Palermo city center is a true culinary gem, located just a few steps away from Teatro Massimo and Mercato del Capo. The school encompasses both indoor and outdoor areas, providing a versatile backdrop for a wide range of culinary adventures. From al fresco cooking sessions to cozy gatherings indoors, every corner of this space has been thoughtfully curated to ensure an unforgettable experience.

Milan

Mercato Centrale
Via Giovanni Battista Sammartini, 1st floor

Our cooking school in downtown Milan is housed inside the well-known Mercato Centrale, a large indoor food market located near the Central Railway Station. The spacious and stylish setting, combined with expert local chefs instruction and hands-on cooking experiences, make it an ideal location for small group cooking classes and private events and celebrations as well.

Exclusive collaboration with art venues and museums

Thanks to our extensive nationwide presence, over the years we have built exclusive collaborations with some of Italy's most prestigious museum institutions. These partnerships allow us to offer truly unique opportunities, such as tours of the Vasari Corridor in Florence or early access to the Florence Cathedral and the Vatican Museums, before their official opening hours. In Milan, our guests can also enjoy guaranteed access to the Cenacolo Vinciano with scheduled guided visits, making these once-in-a-lifetime experiences seamless and unforgettable.
